Mayo Clinic
Rochester, Minnesota
May 27, 1969

Dear Editor:

Recently we received your letter of April 1, in which you requested information on the whereabouts of the members of the "Class of '59."

We will start by telling you what we are doing. Jim is the chief gastrointestinal surgeon here at the clinic. Barbara is his head surgical nurse. Also living in Minnesota is Maxine Todd. She is working on WCZO-TV on a new version of the "Peter Potter Show." She recently interviewed Betty Morris, chosen as the "Model Housewife" of 1969. Another member in show business is Rosemary Swiggert. Rosemary, a talented actress, tours the country often and frequently stops at Kathi Anderson's plush hotel, "The Hilton Anderson." Kathi is, of course, married to the handsome Jim Rushing. He owns a flour mill in Morris and coaches basketball on the side. When in Morris, he often sees Jack Phillips, who is Chief of Police there.

Some of the members of the class stayed close to home. Dennis Wilhelmi is running a successful brewery in Joliet. Carolyn Jones has a restaurant on the outskirts of Channahon. Her head chef is none other than Ron Stewart. In Minooka, the assistant principal of the primary schools is Joyce Murley.

The majority have left home. Jack Overton drives his racer in Indianapolis every year. Sandy Horton and Mary Lundstrom are running a concession stand at Yankee Stadium, so they are near their ball-playing husbands. Sam Harrison is raising cattle and owns an oil field in Texas. Johanna Davies keeps busy counting Sam's money while working as his bookkeeper.

In Chicago, Harriette Henry and Wayne Stalker are running an art shop on Michigan Avenue. Carol Link is currently singing at the "Chez Paree." Carol's roommate is another classmate, Margery Knudson. She is an airline stewardess for Air France. Linda Hauger is private secretary to Dave Beck, Jr.

Willie Spencer is an ice-fisherman in the Bering Strait. Connie Greenwood and her husband clean and package the fish, while keeping track of their eight children. Also in Alaska, owning the largest hog-producing ranch in the United States and Texas is John Baltz.

In Detroit, Betty Stewart has the important position as an automotive design engineer.

We must close now. We are each taking our families to see a concert by our former classmate, Linda Findlay, a very accomplished pianist.

Sincerely,
Jim Herringer, M.D.
Barbara Heap, R.N.

Senior Awards

The American Legion Awards were won by Joyce Murley and Jim Herringer. Barb Heap received the D.A.R. Award. Jim Rushing and Kathi Anderson were voted the Most Representative Students. Kathi also received the Woman's Club Award.

Johanna Davies, Marge Knudson, Sandy Horton, Linda Findlay, Barb Heap, and Linda Hauger were announced as Honor Students. To receive this honor they had to have a four point average or better, based on five points for an A.

Through the Years

In 1956 as a group of thirty-five green freshies we entered M.C.H.S. During that year we sponsored a luncheon and the Christmas party. We had members on the junior varsity basketball team, in chorus, and in band. We had a small semester honor roll of five. But being a class not willing to "sit on our laurels," we hoped to do better in the future.

Our sophomore year found us with our feet more down to earth. To raise money this year we gave a Thanksgiving party which was a big success. We also had a luncheon. We had four boys on the basketball team and two cheerleaders. Our academic average improved. We were represented by eight persons on the honor roll. This year was another success.

As Juniors we had a very exciting year. We all pitched in to sell Christmas cards and to make the "Junior Snak Shak" a success. We wanted to make our prom and banquet the best. This proved quite interesting. We had nine representatives on the honor roll.

It wasn't very long ago that we came filing into school for our last year. We had mixed emotions. Some of us were happy while others were sad. We all knew there was no turning back. Jim Herringer served the class as president. Kathi Anderson was elected to be his right hand lady as vice-president, while Marge Knudson was to take the minutes and Jack Phillips was to record finances.

On April 24, we presented our class play, "A-Feudin' Over Yonder." It was a real smash and left unforgettable moments for all. Of course, we could not have done it without our director, Mr. Baker. We were well represented on the basketball team. Dennis Wilhelmi and Jim Rushing shared high honors there. Kathi Anderson and Barb Heap spurred the team with their cheerleading ability.

We sponsored the annual Christmas party, a luncheon, and a regular party to get money for our field trip, junior-senior picnic, and other expenses. On May 9, we enjoyed the prom put on by the Junior Class. Graduation, on June 3, brought the climax to a great year.

Many memories were collected during our four years at M.C.H.S. that will last forever. We are proud to be graduates of Minooka High School and wish the best of luck to the future graduating classes.

"A-FEUDIN' OVER YONDER"

"A-Feudin' Over Yonder," a hill-billy farce, was presented by the Senior class on April 24. Every senior made some contribution and the class sponsor, Charles Baker, directed the play. Much of the humor of the play came from seeing familiar people in unfamiliar, ridiculous roles confronted with ridiculous circumstances and situations. The play employed the usual elements of hill-billy humor. It was a hit, plus a financial success, and the Senior Class well deserved the audience's applause and praise.

John Baltz, Johanna Davies, Mary Lundstrom, Dennis Wilhelmi, Carolyn Jones, and Sam Harrison.

Jim Herringer, Barbara Heap, Linda Hauger, Jack Overton, Rosemary Swiggert, and Jim Rushing.

Kathi Anderson, Mr. Baker, Ron Stewart, and Joyce Murley.

Sandra Horton, Marge Knudson, Betty Stewart, Wayne Stalker, Jack Phillips, Willie Spencer, Connie Greenwood, Harriette Henry, Linda Findlay (sitting).

The Junior Class elected two members of the Senior Class to reign over the annual Junior-Senior prom. Kathi Anderson was chosen as queen and Jim Herring was chosen as king. They each received a gift certificate.

The Class of '60, now in its junior year, has had many good times. Our junior play, "Mother Is A Freshman," turned out to be a big success. The long anticipated junior-senior prom and banquet were most enjoyable. All of the juniors lended a helping hand to make successful our concession stand at basketball games and the sale of Christmas cards.

We were well represented in all phases of sports, music, cheerleading, and other school activities. Our representatives to the Student Council were Karen Hagmayer and Larry Peterson.

"Oriental Fantasy" was the theme of the 1959 junior-senior prom and banquet. At 6:30 p.m. on the evening of May 9, seniors, juniors, and faculty members attended a banquet at the Crossroads. The motif was carried out later in the evening by the decorations in the gymnasium which simulated an oriental garden. Japanese lanterns provided a soft lighting effect. Gene Victor's orchestra provided music for the occasion.

Mother Is a Freshman

The Juniors presented their class play on November 14 to a large and appreciative audience. The story of the play centered around a "middle-aged woman" who accepted a scholarship to go to college so that her daughter could afford to finish her college education. The situations that developed when a sophomore girl had to admit that her MOTHER IS A FRESHMAN kept the play moving to a very happy climax.

Student Council

A major project of the student council this year was the preparation of a student handbook. Included in the handbook are a suggested dress code, requirements for participating in school activities, a list of subjects offered, a floor plan of the school building, information about the conferences that Minooka belongs to, and many other things pertaining to school life.

The officers of student council for this year were Barbara Heap, president; Jim Rushing, vice-president; and Karen Hagmayer, secretary-treasurer.
